You will meet community groups, government, Territory businesses, industry bodies, primary producers, Indigenous organisations, and the next generation; Northern Territory students.

The 2022 TNRM Conference will include a wide range of presentations and workshops, covering the pressing themes in natural resource management in the Northern Territory today. # SUPPORTER PACKAGE

Take Me There Package

TNRM works closely with many of the northern Territory's Indigenous Ranger groups and Aboriginal corporations.

The conference is an important platform to share findings and updates from some of the most remote project areas of the Territory. Remote travel is logistical and costly.

You can support remote presenters to attend the conference through this package.

Packages include recognition of your support on the TNRM Conference website.

$1,000

Next Generation Support Package

Each year, the TNRM Conference attracts students who attend and present at our workshops and presentation day. Funds from the Sponsorship Package will go toward conference tickets for full time students.

Session Support Package

The three day TNRM Conference program includes workshops, panel discussions and symposium style sessions on either side of the main presentation day. These intimate, half or full day sessions are programmed by TNRM as well as external facilitators.

You can support these sessions as a sponsor only, or in a sponsor/facilitator capacity.

Packages include recognition of your support as a Gold or Silver Partner.

Half day -
$2,500

Full day -
$4,000
